A dead goat was escorted to a burial place in Chicago the other day by three or four carriages filled with people. They were probably after the hide.

The Chicago stamp thieves who bored some eighteen holes through a thick steel plate and got away with $76,000 worth of stamps, had a remarkable sticking capacity.

An Indian Territory farmer has raised 225 bushels of corn on an acre, and says he did it by deep plowing and generous manuring. None of that corn had more than one ear to the stalk either, but there is plenty of room out there for the ears to elongate.

A Borboursville, Ky., man who was recently divorced from his 13th wife and married soon after the 14th, doesn't think 13 such a hoodooed number after all. When No. 14 hits him on the head a few times with a flat-iron or a skillet he may change his opinion.

Mr. J. S. Breece, a nurseryman in Cumberland county, has succeeded in crossing the Japanese walnut with the American pecan, producing a nut four times as large as the pecan. If the nut proves acceptable in flavor, etc., he will propagate the trees.

Gen. Buller blundered a good deal while in command in South Africa. He blundered again at that London dinner, for he told the truth, and that's what he was bounced for. The war managers knew it all along, but they didn't want the public to know it. Now he proposes to tell some more things they didn't want known.

Mr. James Coogan, of New York, has a weakness for silk tiles and will probably stick to them for the balance of his life. The other day he was walking under a three-story building, when a chunk of iron fell from a scaffold above and landed plumb on the hat. The hat was wrecked but Mr. Coogan's skull was saved.

A Chicago man lost three front teeth for which he wants the city to pay him $10,000. He fell on a sidewalk that was being repaired by the city, and fell with such force that three front teeth became so firmly embedded in a piece of scantling that they came out when a dentist tried to remove the piece of scantling.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

Most Enjoyable and Profitable Gathering of Public School Instructors Yesterday.

VERY LARGE ATTENDANCE.

Addresses by Superintendent John Jay Blair and Prof. Washington Catlett. Reports From All the Districts Were Most Encouraging.

A Teachers' Institute, largely attended and full of enthusiasm, was held yesterday morning from 10 to 12 o'clock in the Cape Fear Academy building, on Third street.

The meeting was in response to a call issued by Prof. Washington Catlett, New Hanover's capable and enterprising county superintendent, and with but one exception every white teacher in the county's public school system was present and entered heartily into the spirit of the assembly.

The features of the meeting were addresses by Mr. John J. Blair, superintendent of the city schools, who was present as a guest, and by Prof. Washington Catlett. Many of the teachers also made informal remarks, which were of entertainment and profit to their co-laborers in the great cause of education. Miss Nellie Cook, supervising principal of the city schools, was invited and assigned a part on the programme, but she was unavoidably detained, much to the regret of those in attendance.

The Institute was called to order at 10 o'clock by Prof. Catlett, who welcomed each and every one present. Among them were Miss Lucy Smith, Oak Ridge school, Federal Point township; Miss Jennie T. Oldham, Myrtle Grove school; Mr. S. V. Bowen, East Wilmington; Mr. J. P. Herring, District No. 4, Masonboro; Miss Kathleen Elmore, Middle Sound; Miss Pattie D. Thorne, Wrightsville; Mr. E. C. Herring, Greenville Sound; Misses Augusta Wiggins and Reba Myers, Delgado; Mr. J. G. Murphy, Castle Haynes, and Mr. Matthew Bowen, Acorn Branch. Scott's Hill was alone not represented.

After calling the roll of the teachers Prof. Catlett explained that the meeting was called for mutual profit and that it was in lieu of the township meetings required in the School Law under section 38, which it was deemed inadvisable to hold on account of the geographical lines of the county and for other reasons.

Superintendent Blair was then introduced and highly entertained and instructed the teachers with an illustrated lecture on botanical subjects and topics of natural history. He also encouraged the treatment of these and kindred subjects in the public schools. His address also dealt with matters geographical and was greatly enjoyed.

Prof. Catlett spoke with good effect upon the necessity of discipline, not only for the good of the teachers but for students themselves. He also referred to the beautifying of school grounds and congratulated the teachers upon what has already been accomplished in this direction. The idea he said, had gone with many of the children to their homes and everywhere the good effects were in evidence. He also touched upon the need of inculcating a fondness for reading upon the part of the pupils and encouraged the idea of increasing the rural library which is figuring so prominently in educational circles now.

Reports were then received from each and every school in the county and all of them were highly gratifying and indicative of faithful efforts upon the part of teacher and superintendent.

The institute adjourned sine die but in the future a meeting of this character will be held each year; some of the teachers favor holding them even more often.

A meeting of the colored teachers of the county will be held in December.

Peculiar Illness of Child.

The little infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Bland, North Fourth street, was attacked by an unexpected and rather peculiar illness yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock which gave the parents gravest apprehension for the boy's safety. Either in Castoria or the can of milk from which a nursing bottle was supplied, some chemical change took place to form an opiate which put the infant into a sleep from which it was feared he could not be awakened. The child was put away by its mother yesterday morning and in a few hours it was seen that the sleep into which the boy had fallen was unnatural. Physicians were quickly summoned but at 11:30 o'clock last night the boy was thought to be out of danger.

Fifth Ward Water Works.

It is believed now that it will be only an incomparably short time until work will begin on the extension of the water works into Fifth ward. The new contract, less burdened with details, for which the Board of Audit and Finance recently called, has been drawn and signed by Wm. McLean & Co., the contractors, and it is hoped the auditing board will find no further objection to the agreement. Much of the pipe for the extension is already on the ground, and when the word is given the work will go forward with great dispatch.

MEETINGS BEGIN TO-DAY.

Evangelist Greenwood Will Commence Revival at the First Baptist Church.

Evangelist Greenwood, who is to conduct a series of revival services in the First Baptist church, beginning to-day, arrived from Raleigh last night, and is a guest of Mr. Allison Alderman, on Second street. He is a superb choir master, and took hold of the large choir last night and succeeded in producing splendid music. He is a fine soloist, and renders spiritual songs with pleasing effect. He is not a Canadian, but a Bostonian of the purest type. He is thirty-four, quick, but forcible in every movement and expression. He has sung and spoken twice every day for three months.

His first work in the South was at Raleigh in a great meeting of three weeks just closed. The services today will be at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.; during the week, 3:30 P. M. and 7:45 P. M. There are forty chairs on the platform for the choir. A few are still vacant. Persons, who can and will sing whether at the first rehearsal or not, are requested to occupy them.

Edwards & Broughton, of Raleigh, sent down for the meeting 500 "Gospel songs" pamphlets for the meeting. They contain many new and old hymns of sweetest sentiments and popular tunes.

A TWENTIETH CENTURY MOVEMENT.

Presbyterians Will Raise $300,000 for Education in North Carolina—Synod.

The Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina, now in session at Charlotte, has taken a very important and progressive step in its decision to establish a "Twentieth Century Movement" for the purpose of raising $300,000 for Presbyterian education in the State.

That the work may be systematized the Synod has extended a call to Rev. Dr. J. W. Stagg, of Charlotte, as field secretary at a salary of $4,000 and necessary expenses and Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, of Wilmington, has been named as one of a special committe of five to prosecute the call before Mecklenburg Presbytery and have charge of all matters connected with the employment of the secretary and the determination of his duties and relations.

The matter is discussed enthusiastically by Presbyterians in Wilmington. The plan is that in order to give every Presbyterian in the State of North Carolina an opportunity of taking a responsible part in the great work, it is the will of the Synod that every minister within its bounds shall, as far as practicable, covenant with his session to endeavor to secure the pledge and the payment of $2 per annum for five years by every member of his particular congregation. By this it is meant to be understood that $2 is to be the average amount per member.

LUMBER MEN WILL MEET.

The South Atlantic Lumber Association Will Shortly Hold a Special Meeting.

To morrow week at Red Springs, N. C., a special meeting of the South Atlantic Lumber Association will be held, one of the principal objects of the session being a consideration of complaints in reference to the alleged shortage of railroad cars in some sections embraced by the Association.

The condition is said to be very grave in localities where entire dependence is upon railroad shipment. Some mills, it is said, have had to temporarily suspend operations on account of the shortage of cars, resulting in a demoralization of the laborers and a financial loss to the mill owners. The shortage is due in a large measure to the abnormal demand for cars at this season to move the cotton crop.

The meeting at Red Springs promises to be largely attended and the discussions very interesting.

"THE PRIVATE SECRETARY."

Popular Comedy by Stock Company Kept Audience Roaring With Laughter.

The Dixie Stock Company closed its highly successful engagement yesterday, giving two performances. Both were witnessed by large audiences. Last night the bill was the familiar comedy, "The Private Secretary." The piece was given a fine production and as usual, kept the audience constantly laughing. Mr. Jack Mahoney, a very capable young actor, played well the role of the "Secretary."

The company leaves this morning for Raleigh to fill a week's engagement.

Daughters of the Confederacy.

Mrs. Wm. H. Overman, State President of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, issues a call to the North Carolina chapters, directing attention to the annual convention of the general division at Wilmington, beginning November 13th. The necessity of having credentials properly prepared is touched upon as is also the importance of the convention at which entirely new officers are to be elected, the present incumbents having served the prescribed limit.

Christian Association Anniversary.

The anniversary of the Young Men's Christian Association of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church will be celebrated with appropriate exercises and a special sermon by the pastor, Rev. Dr. A. G. Voigt, this evening at 7.30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

The Polvogt Co., has just received a new assortment of Ladies and Children's hats. †

SEWERAGE SYSTEM.

Remarkable Progress Made Since the Work Was Begun Four Weeks Ago.

DETAILS OF CONSTRUCTION.

Competent Authorities Say It Will be an Up-to-Date Plant in Every Respect. The Disposal Works to be Beautified—Other Notes

Four weeks ago the Wilmington Sewerage Company began work in the city on its very elaborate system of sanitary sewerage and since that time the remarkable progress made by the enterprising contractors has challenged the admiration of all who have witnessed it. Few people, however, are able from a desultory inspection to gather a conception of the magnitude of the work already done. More than 25 blocks and crossings have been laid with pipe and ninety-five per cent of the excavations for the work have been refilled and the streets left in good condition with the exception of a few "finishing touches" to be put on early this week

The weather during the past two weeks has been ideal for carrying on the work and remarkable progress has been made. Thus far pipe has been laid on the following sections of street; Castle street, from Sixth to the river; Second, Third, Fourth and Sixth, from Church to Castle; Front, from Castle to Nun; Dock, from Front to Sixth; Second, Fifth and Sixth, from Dock to Orange; Princess, from Second to Seventh. In addition to the mains thus enumerated, all house connections have been made on the streets named, extending in all cases to the building line. The work of establishing the man-holes is somewhat in advance of the pipe-laying, these having been completed at the intersections of Orange with Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth streets and the intersections of Ann with Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth streets.

The pipe is also laid in addition to the streets enumerated above, in what may be called the city proper, from the disposal plant on Burnt Mill creek down Hall to Woods streets; thence south on Woods street to Miller street, a distance of about 2,000 feet.

This latter was a very difficult piece of work, as it required an excavation of 18 feet depth, in which quicksand and water were encountered in such quantities as to tax the ingenuity of Chief Engineer Maj. Chauncey Ives and Superintendent of Construction E. F. Kittson in overcoming these difficulties, having to cross deep ravines, where inverted syphons were used instead of trestles and filling. This section must have cost the company a large sum of money and the efficient manner in which the work is being done is an evidence of the fact that when completed the citizens of Wilmington will have as fine a system of sanitary sewerage as exists in any other city in the South.

In addition to the man-holes at every street crossing, intermediate lamp holes are placed in the centre of the block by which at all times, the flow can be inspected and should any stoppage occur the place can at once be located and the stoppage removed from the man-hole.

The sewers being laid, joint by joint, on a true grade and the allignment preserved by a line extending along the bell of the pipe, the grade and allignment are both so true that a lamp placed in the man-hole while the pipe is being laid is always visible from the next man-hole.

The territory already covered in the short space of time since permission was given to begin the work is an earnest of the promise to complete the system within the prescribed limit of time.

The STAR is informed that the force of workmen will be increased and the work pursued from now onward with still greater activity. The work already done and the methods pursued in its execution appear to be certainly of a high order and the citizens of Wilmington seem to have cause for congratulation that the city will have a sanitary system that does not belie its name.

The disposal plant of the company near Oakdale cemetery has been completed for some time and is said by experts to be a very fine work. The plant has been neatly enclosed with a substantial and handsomely painted fence. A contract will be let this week for the turfing of the grounds round about and for planting it in shrubbery and flowers. The road leading to the property from the city limits will also be improved.

An Approaching Marriage.

Announcement has been made of the forthcoming marriage on Wednesday, November 6th, at the home of the bride's parents, of Miss Henrietta Shepard, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Shepard, to Mr. James Sinclair, a popular travelling auditor of the Atlantic Coast Line, and a young man well and favorably known by a host of friends in this city. No cards are issued in the city on account of a recent bereavement in the family of the groom.

A BIG SUIT COMPROMISED.

It is Said That Engineer Pemberton Received $12,000 in Settlement With Atlantic Coast Line.

The Fayetteville Observer of yesterday afternoon says:

"The suit of Mr. John A. Pemberton vs. the Atlantic Coast Line railroad was compromised this morning, after a meeting of Mr. George M. Rose, attorney for the Atlantic Coast Line, and Messrs. Robinson & Shaw, attorneys for the plaintiff.

This is a suit which was set for trial next Tuesday, in which the plaintiff sought damage to the amount of $100,000 from the Atlantic Coast Line for injuries received in the collision of a train of which he was the engineer, with another train, standing on the track ahead, near Teacheys. Engineer Pemberton had to jump from his engine, just before it struck the rear of the train ahead, to save his life. His engine telescoped several of the cars run into and they were set on fire. In jumping Mr. Pemberton received serious injuries, his scalp was almost torn from his head and several ribs were broken. He was taken to the hospital at Rocky Mount and his life was despaired of for several day. It was claimed by the plaintiff that the accident was none of his fault, but was through the negligence of the train run into.

The compromise as effected gives Mr. Pemberton in round numbers about $12,000. The following is the judgment of the court, signed to-day by Judge McNeill.

North Carolina—Cumberland County.
In the Superior Court, October Term. 1901—John A. Pemberton vs. A. C. L. R. R. Co.—Judgment.

This cause coming on to be heard at this term of the court, and it appearing to the court that all matters in controversy, between plaintiff and defendant, have been compromised and settled, and the amount agreed upon has been paid to plaintiff:

It is now on motion of George M. Rose, counsel for defendant, assented to by counsel for plaintiff, ordered and adjudged, in accordance with said settlement, that the defendant go without day, and that the plaintiff recover of the defendant the cost of the action to be taxed by the clerk of this court.

T. A. McNEILL, Judge presiding.

Odd Fellows' Memorial Services.

Indications are that the Odd Fellows' Memorial services, at Grace M. E. Church this evening, will be largely attended and will be in every way fitting and appropriate. The service will begin at 7:30 o'clock and the sermon will be by Rev. J. N. Cole, pastor of the church. Special seats will be assigned members of the order, who will gather at Odd Fellows' building at 7 o'clock for the purpose of marching to the church in a body. As usual, the roll of members who have passed away during the past year, will be read.

Two New Lodges, Perhaps.

In speaking of the outlook for the new lodge of Elks soon to be instituted in Raleigh, District Deputy Gerken, who is just back from the State Fair, says that the prospects are very bright indeed. The list of charter members will contain about thirty names, the very best people in the city. They are now slating their officers and Mr. Gerken expects to institute the lodge about the middle of November. While in Raleigh District Deputy Gerken also saw a number of prominent men of Kinston who are working up a charter list for the order in that enterprising city.

The Morning Star.

BY WILLIAM H. BERNARD

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 27.

WHAT HYPOCRISY.

The Roosevelt-Washington dining incident has given the Republicans of the North an opportunity to indulge in a good deal of hypocrisy, as apparent as the noonday sun. The first endorsement it received was from the meeting at Delaware, Ohio, which opened the Republican State campaign, where Senator Foraker mentioned the incident, which was received with a demonstration of applause.

Of course the motive that Senator Foraker had in speaking of it on that occasion is understood by people who keep up with political movements. There are about 20,000 negro voters in Ohio. It had gone out that President Roosevelt would in his appointments to office in the South choose the most competent and acceptable men regardless of their politics and that when a Republican who could meet these requirements could not be found a Democrat would be appointed. In pursuance of that determination he had already appointed ex-Governor Jones, Democrat, of Alabama, U. S. District Judge.

It was further stated that negroes would not be appointed to positions where they came into official contact with white people, and in no instance where white people would be placed officially under them. This would practically relegate the negro, leave him only subordinate and menial positions, such as he holds in Washington and other Northern cities where he gets government employment.

The presumption is that this virtual turning down of the negro, who under previous Republican administrations had held postmasterships, customs collectorships, positions in the internal revenue offices, &c., was not regarded with favor by the negroes of Ohio or of other Northern States, and hence Senator Foraker hailed with delight this dining incident as a placater and used it to throw dust in the eyes of the negro voters of that State. That was politics, politics based on undiluted hypocrisy.

Senator Foraker rejoiced in the fact that Mr. Roosevelt invited a negro to his family table. He commended it. Wasn't this a reflection upon and a rebuke to the late President McKinley and all his predecessors? Not one of these ever gave such social recognition to any negro although they had plenty of opportunity to do so for more or less distinguished negroes frequently visited Washington and called upon them. Senator Hanna was at that meeting and gave his approval to this rebuke to and reflection upon his dead friend, whose death he so much sorrowed over, and sincerely, too.

Senator Foraker has been a conspicuous figure in Republican politics. He has been an assertive, aggressive leader, ever watching for an opportunity to jump on to the South, so much so that he was dubbed "Fire-alarm" Foraker and is better known by that, perhaps, than by his Christian name.

Senator Hanna hasn't been in public life as long as Foraker, but he became more of a leader and more conspicuous. Both of them have been brought into close contact with leading negroes. They have frequently met and conferred with them in Washington, and doubtless sometimes in their own home towns. Did Senator Foraker and Senator Hanna ever invite a negro to their tables? If they did they succeeded in keeping it such a secret that the public never heard of it.

And yet this flamboyant emberblower has the monumental cheek and the brazen hypocrisy to stand in the presence of white men and glory in the act that he would not dare himself and regret that he was not there to give it his personal presence and sanction. And Mark Hanna endorsed all that and branded himself as a conscienceless hypocrite. Both of them were lying, one by utterance, the other by assent.

For years, and until his death, Fred Douglass was the looming figure and intellectual colossus of his race. He wrote, lectured, took part as an orator in political campaigns, and was thrown into intimate contact with Republican leaders in the North. He was a frequent caller at the White House. Did any one ever hear of Fred Douglass being invited to dine at the White House or by Senator Foraker or Senator Hanna, or by any other Republican leader to their houses? And yet he spoke to white audiences right up there where they take so much interest in "the man and the brother;" intelligent and intellectual people, some of them writers and speakers of celebrity sat and listened to him, or sat on the platform with him—but they didn't invite him to their homes nor sit with him at their family tables. Fred Douglass, like Booker Washington, was half white.

There are negro delegates at every Republican national convention and at some of the state conventions in the north. Among these delegates are some of the most reputable negroes who take part in politics. Do the white Republicans fraternize with them socially on such occasions and take them into the same hotels and into the family circles there? It is always an embarrassing question what to do with the negro delegates and they finally dispose of them by shoving them off into some obscure side street hashery and giving them as wide a berth as possible while the convention lasts.

And yet these hypocritical mountebanks have the audacity to commend and applaud the Roosevelt fraternizing with Booker Washington.

DISSAPPOINTED PERSECUTORS.

As far as the verdict of the American people is concerned the Schley court of inquiry might have closed up when prosecutor Lemly got through with his witnesses for their evidence, while intended to be the reverse, was a virtual vindication of Schley. There were too many witnesses—too many who could not conceal their dislike for Schley, and too many callow, bumptious young men who were apparently endeavoring to ingratiate themselves with their superiors by spinning contradictory yarns, telling a good many things they did not know, and forgetting a good many things they should have remembered.

The court, presided over by Admiral Dewey, very soon caught on to this, saw through it, and the result was that prosecutor Lemly and his coached witnesses were frequently called to time by Admiral Dewey, with the information that the court wanted "facts" and not opinions or romances.

As far as sustaining a condemnation of Schley went the investigation was a flat failure before a single witness for Schley was heard, but their testimony made the failure overwhelming. Their testimony was not only a vindication, but a glorification of their chief, for they said more for him than the public ever knew, and more than Schley would have said of himself, for he is a modest man, devoid of the vain glorious egotism that characterizes some of his traducers.

If the investigation has done nothing else, nor given the public any more reason to admire Schley than it had before, it has done this, it has exposed what is apparently a miserable conspiracy to deprive a worthy man of the credit due him for serving his country faithfully, it has given Schley's friends an opportunity to tell what they know about his behavior as a soldier and commander; it has given him an opportunity to tell his own story in his own straightforward, honest way, and it has brought out many facts that the public did not know, and which will be valuable when a truthful history of the Spanish-American war is written.

As Schley and his men demolished Cervera's fleet so the "facts" brought out in this investigation have demolished the conspiracy of the navy and Navy Department clique that tried to discredit and destroy the reputation of a man who was in every way their superior, who bore their assaults and detraction patiently until patience ceased to be a virtue and he asked for this court of inquiry.

SIZING UP ROOSEVELT.

Since Theodore Roosevelt has become President he has become an object of study, more abroad than at home. Some of the estimates of him are so striking as to be worth reproducing. Among these is the following by a writer in the London Fortnightly Review, which draws a comparison between Roosevelt and Kaiser William, thus:

"As young as the German Emperor, comparably with the Kaiser himself in personal force and invested for at least three years with almost equal authority over a greater nation, Theodore Roosevelt is confronted by larger possibilities of influence, for good or evil, upon the destinies of mankind in general than have ever opened at any previous time before the occupant of the White House. Nor has there been for many years a President likely to make a bolder and more individual use of his authority. In direct power, the President of the United States, as every one is aware, is equalled, while he holds office, only by the Kaiser and the Czar alone, and the Chief Magistrate of the United States is rather more assured of the support of Congress and the nation than is the German Emperor of the support of the Reichstag and his people.

* * * * * * *

"His billigerent courage is a moral quality no less than a physical instinct, and unless responsibility restrains him, he will substitute prompt and decisive initiative for Mr. McKinley's reflective caution. There is a fine suggestiveness about the fact that a descendent of the old Knickerbockers should become President of the United States at the beginning of the twentieth century. But above all these is the dynamic quality of Mr. Roosevelt's youth. We have seen what that has meant in the case of Germany, where the Kaiser has made the whole system of the body politic tingle to the finger tips with the electric energy of his own temperament. We can scarcely conceive what youth at the head of administrative affairs might mean in that country.

* * * * * * *

This writer is evidently familiar with the incidents of Roosevelt's career and has studied him before he became the conspicuous personage he now is. The reference to the probabilities that Roosevelt will take some bold and unprecedented departures from old time precedents has already been verified in some respects by his appointment of Democrats to federal positions, and by his unprecedented social fraternizing with Booker Washington. This was a surprise, and Mr. Roosevelt will probably give the country more surprises, although not on the same line.

"Common Sense"

Is the motto of the modern woman. The thick soled shoe and the rainy day skirt are witnesses to the wise application of the motto in matters of dress.

But there is no common sense in neglecting womanly diseases or in experimenting with other medicines when it is a matter of common knowledge that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It establishes regularity, dries enfeebling drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

It is not common sense to seek medical advice of those who are not physicians when Dr. Pierce, not only a doctor, but a specialist in the treatment and cure of diseases of woman, offers a consultation by letter free. Write to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"I had falling of internal organs and had to go to bed every month; had irregular monthly periods which would sometimes last ten or twelve days," writes Mrs. L. Holmes, of Coolspring Street, Uniontown, Penna. "Had also indigestion so bad that I could not eat anything hardly. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me. I took three bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' and one of the 'Golden Medical Discovery.'"

For 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only you can get free a paper covered copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. The book contains 1008 pages. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Peter Grimes, of Indianapolis, has a divorce suit on his hands simply because in his religious zeal he made it hot for his wife when she refused to see things spiritual as he did. He declares that his strenuousness was all kindness for he wanted to save her and she would go to hell unless she believed in him. But she seems disposed to take her chances rather than be subjected to his vigorous method of inculcating his religious beliefs.

Colorado dosen't propose to let Arizona get ahead of her on gold finds. She reported two finds within the past week, one which seems to be the crater of a played out volcano which was full of stuff about the consistency of dough but sparkling with golden pebbles. There are thousands of tons of the "dough" in sight. Another is a ledge a few miles from Denver, which pans out $2,000 to the ton.

The Charleston Post denies that Mr. Koester, who was appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for South Carolina, is a "gold Democrat," as alleged. It says he was in 1896 "a ripping Bryanite and silver advocate, just as was his chief patron, Senator McLaurin."

CURRENT COMMENT

—— Ship subsidy beggars should appeal to the steel corporation to raise out of reason the price of steel so as to impress upon Congress the necessity of giving the subsidy beggers a chance to rob the treasury. As it is, steel is produced so much more cheaply in this country than in Europe, the beggars may lose out unless "the mommunity of interest" of the two can be successfully worked through lobbyists at Washington.—Mobile Register, Dem.

—— Reporters of marine intelligence state that the German shipping trade is in a very unsatisfactory condition, and that freight rates on the North Atlantic by steamer have sunk to lower figures than ever before. This looks very much as if the merchants, both of Germany and America, were taking alarm at the portents of commercial war which are darkening the German horizon, and are curtailing their transactions to bring their business down within safe limits in case of possible trouble.—Philadelphia Telegraph, Rep.

—— Senator Hanna and other Republican leaders who are praising and magnifying President Roosevelt for entertaining a negro in the White House and saying that he has discharged a bounden duty to the negro race in so doing, seems to forget that in taking this position they are reflecting upon the conduct of President McKinley. He earnestly endeavored to be President of the whole country; he showed that he had a kind regard for the black man; yet he never felt that it was his duty as President of the United States, or as a citizen of the United States, to recognize the black man as his social equal.—Richmond Leader, Dem.

LET SOMETHING GOOD BE SAID

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY.

When over the fair fame of friend or foe
The shadow of disgrace shall fall, instead
Of words of blame, or proof of thus and so,
Let something good be said.

Forget not that no fellow-being yet
May fall so low but love may lift his head;
Even the cheek of shame with tears is wet,
If something good be said.

No generous heart may vainly turn aside
In ways of sympathy; no soul so dead
But may awaken strong and glorified,
If something good be said.

And so I charge ye; by the thorny crown,
And by the cross on which the Saviour bled,
And by your own soul's hope of fair renown,
Let something good be said!

Dr. C. J. MOFFETT—My Dear Sir: Justice to you demands that I should give you my experience with your excellent medicine TEXTHINA. Our little girl, just thirteen months old, has had much trouble teething. Every remedy was exhausted in the shape of prescriptions from family physicians. Her bowels continued to pass off pure blood and burning fever continued for days at a time. Her life was almost despaired of. Her mother determined to try TEXTHINA, and in a day or two there was a great change—new life had returned—the bowels were regular, and, thanks to TEXTHINA, the little babe is now doing well. A Knight Templar Praises Peruna

And Says: "I am Better Than I Have Been for Twenty Years."

Colonel T. P. Moody, a prominent Knight Templar, is well known in every city in the United States west of Buffalo, N. Y., as a Jeweler's Auctioneer. In the city of Chicago as a prominent lodge man, being a member of the K. T.'s and also of the Masons. The cut shows Colonel Moody in the costume of the Oriental Consistory Masons, 32d degree.

"For over twenty-five years I suffered from catarrh, and for over ten years I suffered from catarrh of the stomach terribly.

"I have taken all kinds of medicines and have been treated by all kinds of doctors, as thousands of my acquaintances are aware in different parts of the United States, where I have traveled, but my relief was only temporary, until a little over a year ago I started to take Peruna, and at the present time I am better than I have been for twenty years.

"The soreness has left my stomach entirely and I am free from indigestion and dyspepsia and will say to all who are troubled with catarrh or stomach trouble of any kind, don't put it off and suffer, but begin to take Peruna right away, and keep it up until you are cured, as you surely will be if you persevere.

"My wife, as many in the southwest can say, was troubled with a bad cough and bronchial trouble, and doctors all over the country gave her up to die, as they could do nothing more for her. She began taking Peruna with the result that she is better now than she has been in years, and her cough has almost left her entirely. The soreness has left her lungs and she is as well as she ever was in her life, with thanks, as she says, to Peruna. Yours very truly,

Catarrh assumes many forms and attacks many organs. Colonel Moody had catarrh of the stomach, while his wife had catarrh of the lungs. Both were cured by Peruna, simply because catarrh is catarrh, wherever located. It may attack one organ or another. It may be chronic or acute. It may cause one a slight inconvenience or great suffering. Diseases that catarrh sets up are called by various names but they are all in reality catarrh. Peruna cures catarrh wherever located.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Sanford Express: Mr. N. A. Stone tells the Express that he raised this year one hundred bushels of sweet potatoes on a half acre of land.

— Durham Sun: There is tomato vine now growing at the residence of J. S. Dunn, near the Pearl Mills, that is fifteen high. On this vine are several branches from eight to ten feet long. The vine is still blooming and bearing, notwithstanding the fact that there have been several frosts this season. It is remarkable.

—Goldsboro Argus: The train from the Raleigh Fair last night was stoned twice between that city and Goldsboro, the last time near Princeton, when a window was shattered and one of the flying pieces of glass inflicted an ugly gash on the temple of our young friend and townsman, Mr. James S. Crawford, of the National Bank, barely missing his eye.

— Elizabeth City Tar Heel: The thirteen-year old son of Mr. Monroe Bright was kicked to death by a horse in the park near the fair ground race track, Thursday afternoon. The horse was a vicious one and attempted to kick every one who approached it. It is supposed the boy ventured too near. His skull was frightfully crushed by the vicious brute's hoof, but he lived a few hours in this condition.

— Raleigh News and Observer: Sheriff McDowell, of Burke county, brought four prisoners to the State Prison this week. One of the men was jailed for larceny of a large lot of firearms, 40 boxes of cartridges, 3 knives, 12 pistols and 3 razors being in the lot. He explained his need for these as follows; "Well, you see, I heard that President McKinley was killed and I got these weapons for I must just kill that fellow Goll Dosh."

— Kinston Free Press: Dr. R. H. Lewis informs us that recently a species of birds made their appearance in this section that have never been seen in these parts before. He says that a large colony of the species seems to have located here and that it is a very beautiful bird. He does not know how to account for their appearance. He says he thinks this species heretofore have migrated further South. He also informs us that birds commenced their annual migration from the north to warmer climes earlier than usual.

— Scotland Neck Commonwealth: Last Friday some tobacco sold on the floor of the Banner warehouse for $1.75 per pound, and other sales went as high as thirty and forty cents per pound. The prices have been good all the season and remain so. —— Some weeks ago Mr. E. Shields' knitting mill closed by reason of some financial embarrassment of the then managers, Messrs. Woodard and Jenkins. Matters have been adjusted and the mill is again at work. Soon it will be running on full time, new machines will be placed and the plant enlarged.

— Fayetteville Observer: Mr. W. H. Andrews' saw mill in 71st township, about four miles from Fayetteville, was burned Wednesday night. The loss is estimated at about $3,000, with no insurance. —— Four negro men were placed in jail last night, charged with breaking into Mr. Pope's store at Godwin night before last and stealing a quantity of goods. They were tried yesterday before L. W. Tart, J. P., of Black River township, and bound over to the Criminal Court. Their names are Wesley McDonald, Neill McAllister, David Ray and Will McDonald.

Never Despair.

The most perilous hour of a person's life is when he is tempted to despond. The man that loses his courage loses all. There is no more hope for him than a dead man. But it matters not how poor he may be, how much pushed by circumstances, how much deserted by friends, how much lost to the world, if he only keeps his courage, holds up his head and with unconquerable will determines to be and to do what becomes a man, all will be well. It is nothing outside of him that kills. It is what is within that makes or not makes.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The cotton market opened steady with prices two points lower to four points higher, and exhibited a healthy undertone most of the morning on nervous demand from shorts and fair support from the bull side, based on cold weather in the northwest and frost temperatures in the Carolinas. On the Canadian border temperatures over night dropped twelve to twenty-six degrees and show a tendency toward the cotton belt. The cables from Liverpool were disappointing, receipts were large and public buying dragged fully as much as during the forepart of the week. The South sent buying orders to our pit; Europe sold early, but later became a brief buyer of the July option. While the weekly crop weather review of the Chronicle stated that climatic conditions had been ideal for picking, it declared indications still pointed to a short yield. The market for futures closed steady, with prices net four to eight points higher.

A THUNDERING PRICE FOR BEANS.

The Sequel to a Modest Repast at a Costly Figure.

"A good many years ago," says a well known writer, "I was connected with a morning newspaper in an Illinois city, and our custom was to go to the restaurant in the railroad station for our midnight lunch, that being the only place open at that time of the night.

"There were three morning papers, so quite a number of the newspaper boys made the place a rendezvous, and we used to sit and talk over all the things that had happened and a good many that had not.

"This restaurant was run by a man named Cull, and he had held up enough trains with his lunch counter to make himself pretty well fixed in this world's goods.

"One night when we were all gathered there the 12:07 train pulled in, and among others was a passenger who regaled himself with a plate of beans.

"The lunch counter in Cull's absence was in charge of a young man who had his eye distinctly on the main chance.

"The conductor called, 'All aboard!' and the man in great haste asked what he owed.

"'Fifty cents.'

"'What! Fifty cents for a plate of beans?'

"'That's the price.'

"'Your joking. How much?'

"'Fifty cents goes.'

"'Well,' said the man as he paid the money in with little evidence of temper, 'that's a thundering price for beans.' And again as he went through the door he turned and said impressively, 'A thundering price for beans!'

"Cull's troubles began with that moment.

"While we were still sitting there the railroad operator brought in a telegram to Cull, who had come in in the meantime and was chuckling over the profit on those beans.

"Cull read the telegram. All it said was: 'A thundering price for beans. John Q. Smith.' But on the envelope was the significant inscription, 'Collect 25 cents.'

"This was the opening shot. From every station between that town and St. Louis came that wail to Cull, 'A thundering price for beans!' and each time Cull got madder and madder over the 'Collect 25 cents.' In the morning Cull notified his boy not to receive or pay for any more telegrams and also read the riot act to the telegraph company.

"The next day our friend John Q. Smith started in on a new game. He would pack a dozen choice bricks in a box, with the same old message inclosed, and ship them to Cull. This he did by both freight and express, 'charges collect,' until Cull was fairly frenzied with rage.

"Now, at this time Cull was playing the market through a Chicago broker, and it happened that there was a sudden and severe slump. The broker wired Cull to put up more margins. Cull's boy, under instructions, declined to receive the message. Getting no answer to his telegram, the broker closed Cull's account at a whopping loss.

"This was the last straw. Cull went plumb crazy in earnest this time. He was taken to the asylum and spent the rest of his days there.

"He used to sit day by day with his head between his hands repeating by the hour the five fatal words: 'A thundering price for beans! A thundering price for beans!'"—St. Paul Dispatch.

AN ARTISTIC UNDERTAKER.

The Element of Uncanniness Eliminated In His Pretty Shop.

The most artistic undertaker's shop in New York is on Eighth avenue. Most undertakers are content with one fine casket under a glass case for their show window display, with perhaps an impressive velvet curtain as a background. But this Eighth avenue man has what might be called a "dressy" window. He has all the newest ideas for making undertaking and its trappings less uncanny in their aspects than formerly.

To this purpose he has filled his immense corner show windows with a quantity of palm trees—not the real, but the artificial sort—high and imposing, with drooping spiked leaves and all the melancholy of the willow, with a certain modern style of their own as well as a suggestion of tropical warmth. Beneath these palms he has carelessly scattered a number of caskets of different colors, sizes and finish.

For the frivolous there are shades of violet velvet from faint lilac to deepest purple and the very latest things in embossed cloths and fluffy interior decorations. Then there are odd complicated arrangements opening with springs like folding beds and metal caskets with locks and keys of heavy and substantial make. Beneath the palms these are displayed with as much careful grace of arrangement as regards shade as though they were park benches.

But the daintiest touch is given by the tombstone models, miniature replicas of beautiful designs in monuments. Time was when one selected a tombstone from a book of cold black and white designs, but here you can see the styles, gay little arched effects and tiny angels showing the color and general effect of the tombstone when finished. They are small, for the tall, sky piercing shafts in the samples measure no more than two feet. Little girls wander in now and then to try and buy them for their dolls, but they are intended solely for undertaker's bric-a-brac.—New York Sun.

Frenchwomen Talk to Advantage.

The Frenchwoman is an excellent housewife. She makes the most of everything and obtains much from small resources. She manages her household most economically. She is sober, she is ingenious, she is devoted to her husband and to her children. In the home of farmers and workingmen she represents the intellectual element. When a farmer comes to speak on business with his landlord, it is always the wife who talks and enters into discussions. The man looks at her and gives his opinion by nodding or shaking his head, without saying a single word. If a workingman has a lawsuit on hand, he goes with his wife to the lawyer's office. It is the woman who does the talking and explains the case. She is evidently the intelligent one, and her husband recognizes this fact and is forced to acknowledge it.—Humanitarian.

Audiences Teach Actors.

Every actor can tell dozens of stories showing how valuable a teacher his audience has been to him. Mr. Vezin tells an instructive story of Hendricks. The great German Hamlet came off the stage one day and said to his fellow actor, "I have learned the effect at last which I have been attempting for years." "Well," said his friend, "but they laughed at you" "Yes," replied Hendricks, "but that laugh has taught me how I will tomorrow make them weep." Nearly all of us have been cured of some trick or taught some truth in a similar way, and the silent education is always being carried on by the bond which connects us in some mysterious way with the awe inspiring aggregate of human souls that make up an audience.—Nineteenth Century.

St. Peter's.

The largest cathedral in the world is St. Peter's at Rome, on the site where it is said St. Peter was interred. The total length of the interior is 612½ English feet; transept, 446½ feet; diameter cupola, 193 feet; height of dome from pavement to top of the cross, 448 feet. It was begun in A. D. 1450, dedicated in 1626, but not finished until 1880. Forty-three popes lived and died during the process of building. The cost is set down at $70,000,000.

HER TEARS ARE HER FORTUNE.

A Woman In Black Who Can Weep and Excite Sympathy at Will.

"Do you see that woman in black sitting there?" said a railroad detective. "Well, she possesses the rare gift of being able to cry naturally and at will.

"If she sees a group of well dressed men in a station waiting for a train, she'll sit or stand very near them and burst out crying. Of course her misery will attract attention, and some man will surely come to her relief. The story is that she has no money to buy a ticket to get to her dying daughter in the next town. It is a common thing for men to give her a few dollars promptly and never ask any questions. She has a variety of stories to tell. I think she is the most successful beggar I know.

"Crying at will is something I don't understand. I have seen counterfeit cries galore on the stage, but this woman's cry is much nearer the real thing. No, she does not hold a handkerchief to her eyes at all. She just keeps her face well up and sobs freely, her tears rolling down her cheeks that all may see them. She can cry anywhere.

"I've seen that woman stop on the sidewalk near where three men were standing and sob as if her heart would break. When one of the men asked what the matter was, she replied she lived 20 miles away and had lost her purse. The three men gave her a dollar and a half in a jiffy and asked no questions. How often in a day she does a turn like that I don't know.

"She does her trick so artistically that we hate to turn the fraud down. One time I did interfere in the front of a hotel, but the five men she had cried to simply gave me a stony stare and waved me off as they handed her a few small bills. They wouldn't hear my story and swallowed her tears of woe as a trout jumps at a fly. I guess those men would rather feel they'd helped a poor woman than believe there was such a fraud. That's why I let her go.

"No, I am sure she uses no onion or other pungent odors to cause her tears. Her tear glands are ever ready on tap and never appear to be empty. Some days ago I asked a doctor about it, and he couldn't explain it more than to say that practice makes perfect and that the tear glands could be developed the same as any other portion of the human body. I have promised to show him the woman some time."—New York Sun.

Every man has his chain and dog, only it is looser and lighter to one than to another, and he is more at ease who takes it up and carries it than he who drags it.—Seneca.

Cold Steel or Death.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvellous power of Electric Bitters to cure Stomach and Liver toubles, but she had heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price 50c at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store. †

THE LATEST AS TO NERVES AND STRENGTH

It is not muscle so much as the nerves back of muscle which show one's strength and power of endurance. And the study with able physicians of to-day is how to keep the nerves in perfect health and fitted for the strain of every-day living. Headache of every type, nerve weakness, dyspepsia, sleeplessness, langour, restlessness, nervous dyspepsia, muscular weakness, brain weariness, poor circulation,—a thousand different unpleasant feelings and symptoms are due to nerve waste and nerve weakness,—especially in women and children. But how can all this be prevented, one will ask? How can my broken-down constitution be repaired, and nerve strength and full, robust health be secured. Just two points to remember: Determine that you will grow strong in nerves and health, and decide to use at once that most famous nerve cure, COCELLIN. It is delicious in taste, quick in action and makes the wearied nerves tingle with renewed strength and every function the stronger and faculty the brighter by its use. Druggists sell it.

SUNDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 27.

MR. AND MRS. FRED GEBHARD

A Divorce Granted to the Wife On Her Cross Bill of Complaint, at Sioux Falls, S. D

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Oct. 26.—Judge Jones this afternoon dissolved the marriage existing between Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gebhard, granting a divorce to the wife on her cross bill of complaint. Both are given liberty to remarry, and Mrs. Gebhard is awarded $1,000 for costs, attorney's fees, etc. Mr. Gebhard filed a suit for divorce from his wife, formerly Miss Morris, of Baltimore, on September 30th last. He alleged that she wilfully deserted him in September, 1889. Mrs. Gebhard arrived here to-day and immediately filed a cross bill, in which she denied the desertion and alleged that her husband in 1889 sent her away from his home to the home of his niece at Newport, and that he then took his residence at the Waldorf Astoria, in New York, where he had remained until his removal to South Dakota. At the hearing this afternoon Mrs. Gebhard's allegations were corroborated by the testimony of her mother and brother. Judge Jones decided that Mrs. Gebhard's charges were sustained and granted the decree accordingly.

STRIKE IN NEW ORLEANS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Oct. 26.—The strike on the Carrollton electric road, which controls the St. Charles, Napoleon and Jackson avenue lines, and also the Canal and Claybornе line, went into effect to day when the motormen and conductors brought in their cars. The strike results from the refusal of the company to reinstate a conductor who was discharged for fighting while wearing a company's uniform. The employes so far have declined to recede from the position they have taken. The company is operating some cars, guarded by policemen, and no attempt at violence has been made. No other lines than those controlled by the Carrollton Company are affected by the strike, however. President McMahon, of the Street Car Men's Union, is understood to be on his way here.

AN HISTORIC CHARACTER.

Hon. Josiah Turner Died Yesterday at His Home in Hillsboro, N. C.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 26.—Josiah Turner, the most historic character in North Carolina, died this morning in Hillsboro, aged 80. As editor of the Raleigh Sentinel amid reconstruction times, his bitter sarcasm and boldness aided in driving out the carpet-baggers. In 1870 he was jailed as a Ku Klux. Released by the Federal court, his ovation here was immense. He was a member of the Confederate Congress. Elected to the United States Congress after the war, he was refused his seat. In later years he turned his pen on his people and his star fell. In 1880 he was expelled from the State Legislature for disorderly conduct.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

Received Resolutions Approving His Course in Dining With Booker Washington.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Senator Cullom and Representative Hopkins, of Illinois, saw the President to-day. The former was accompanied by Thos. C. McMillan, of Chicago, who presented to the President the resolutions adopted by the American Missionary Association, approving the course of the President in inviting Booker T. Washington to dine with him. The President received the resolutions and thanked the association for its kind expressions.

Cardinal Gibbons, of Baltimore, had a talk with President Roosevelt to-day by appointment. He declined to make public the purpose of the conference.

ENGLAND AND HOLLAND.

Relations Between the Two Countries Appear to be Strained.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 26.—The relations between Holland and Great Britain again appear to be somewhat strained. According to intelligence which is being circulated here Great Britain asked Holland to recall her consul at Pretoria, because he was suspected of facilitating treasonable correspondence. Holland has given the consul indefinite leave of absence.

A JAIL DELIVERY.

Three Outlaws Escape From the Jail of Wayne County, W. Va.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ROANOKE, VA., Oct. 26.—There was a jail delivery in Wayne court house, the county seat of Wayne county, West Virginia, last night and three outlaws are now enjoying their freedom in the West Virginia mountains. When Jailor Walker entered the jail last night with rations for the inmates one large burly fellow knocked him down and held him until the other prisoners secured his revolver, and then after locking the jailor in a cage all escaped.

Counsel for Roland B. Molineux, New York, have served a notice of a motion to quash the indictment against Molineux. The motion will come up before Judge McMahon in part I of the Court of General Sessions next Wednesday.

CZOLGOSZ TO DIE NEXT TUESDAY.

Murderer of President McKinley Does Not Care to See a Priest Again.

VISITED BY HIS BROTHER.

Showed No Emotion, But Inquired After Other Members of the Family—His Father May Visit Him—Disposal of the Remains.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

AUBURN, N. Y., October 26.—Czolgosz's brother Waldeck and a brother-in-law arrived at the prison gate this morning. The former was admitted, but the warden was not satisfied as to the latter's identity, and he was not allowed to enter. It is believed that the visit has something to do with the claiming of the remains of the assassin after his electrocution. When Czolgosz's brother left the prison this afternoon he stated that no decision had been made as to the disposition of the assassin's body after execution. He said, however, that it would be taken to Cleveland.

Waldeck stated that the assassin had shown no emotion, turned and inquired after the other members of the family, and said that he did not care to see a priest again. The interview between the brothers took place in the office of the prison. They conversed in English more than an hour. After the interview Waldeck said his brother was never demonstrative, but appeared to be glad to see him. The assassin expected to die Tuesday and will make no effort to appeal. Waldeck will visit his brother again Monday.

It was learned to-night that plans are being made to prevent the body finding its way into a State medical institution. It has been planned to have the body taken in charge by a local undertaker immediately after the autopsy on Tuesday. If the financial end of the proposition can be arranged satisfactorily the body will be shipped at once to a Buffalo crematory. After it has been incinerated the ashes will be taken to Cleveland.

The Assassin's Father.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 26.—Although the brother and brother-in-law of Leon Czolgosz, the murderer of President McKinley, have been at Auburn, N. Y., about a day, nothing has been heard from them by the assassin's father, and he does not know whether he will see his doomed son alive again or not.

Paul Czolgosz, the father, did not want to make the journey to the place of execution unless he was sure that he would see his son before the execution. He has from the first been desirous of bringing the body of the assassin to Cleveland for burial, and Waldeck Czolgosz and Thomas Bandowski went east to arrange for that.

"If the boy wants to see me and the police will let me see him I will be there at once," said the father through an interpreter last night.

Although the father says the body of the assassin will be brought here for burial he says he has not made any arrangements for the interment.

The father says he will bury the body in Cleveland if he has to buy a lot outside of a cemetery and form a cemetery of his own.

Regarding the place of interment of the body of the assassin, it can be stated on authority that if he dies repentant and reconcile i to the church his body will be given what is known as Christian burial, that is, burial in consecrated ground, but further than this no religious service will be accorded him, and no public church services can be held over his body. His is what is known as an "extraordinary" case and the bishop of the diocese has jurisdiction over it.

EUFAULA BANK FAILURE.

President and Cashier of the Institution Arrested and Taken to Montgomery.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., Oct. 26.—A special to the Advertiser, from Eufaula, Ala., says:

President S. H. Dent and Cashier E. B. Young, of the Eufaula National Bank, which failed a few days ago, were arrested to-day in connection with a deposit of $50,000 in Alabama State bonds which ex-Gov. Oates is said to have had in the bank in a private box at the time of the failure.

The prisoners were taken to Montgomery this afternoon.

Another Statement.

MNOTGOMERY, ALA, October 26.—S. H. Dent, president, and E. R. Young, cashier of the defunct Eufaula National Bank, came to Montgomery to-night in company with W. S. Reese, United States district attorney. G. R. Dessausure, a national bank examiner, is in Eufaula, investigating the affairs of the bank. Mr. Reese has decided not to make an affidavit against the officials of the bank, preferring to await the action of the Federal grand jury, which will meet November 4th. Mr. Reese said the examiner had not completed his investigation.

The bank officials are in a controversy with Gov. Oates, who contends that he had $37,000 in bonds in the bank for safe keeping. The officials contend the bonds were on deposit and that Gov. Oates should be treated as other creditors.

WORK OF A MANIAC.

Shot Three Members of His Household, Set Fire to His House and Then Committed Suicide.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

IRON RIVER, WIS., Oct. 26.—Andrew Israelson, a homesteader, living near Beechwood, a small settlement eight miles west of here, to-day became suddenly and violently insane and attacked the members of the household with a gun. Two persons beside himself are dead and a fourth is dying. His wife was the first to fall, being killed instantly by a bullet through her head. Her father, who went to her assistance, was shot through the body and is believed to be fatally wounded. The third victim was Israelson's sister-in-law, and after shooting her through the heart the maniac set fire to the house, in which, lying ill in bed, was the aged mother of his wife. The flames had gained good headway before several men who were attracted by the fire rushed upon the scene. As they did so, Israelson, who was in the barnyard (where in his frenzy he had killed the cow) put the gun to his mouth and blew out his brains. The sick woman and the bodies of the dead were removed from the burning house none too soon, for in a few minutes it was in ruins.

Spanish-American Spirit—Warm Tribute to Spain by Gen. Rayes, Delegate From Colombia.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

MEXICO CITY, October 26.—This morning the members of the Mexican delegation to the Pan American Congress informally met their colleagues to receive suggestions as to the amendments to the proposed regulations of the conference, especially to chapter three, with respect to formalities of the sessions, an amendment that has very strong support. It is one in favor of throwing open the sessions to representatives of the press, instead of holding them in secret.

This evening the delegates attended a reception given by Minister of Foreign Relations Mariscal and Mrs. Mariscal, in the department of Foreign relations. The best Mexican society was also present. Mrs. Mariscal, herself, a Washington lady, did the honors charmingly. Light refreshments were provided.

No end of talk is heard to-day about a speech of General Rafael Rayes, delegate from Colombia at a banquet given by the city council of Mexico, in honor of the delegates. Gen. Rayes was responding to the toasts of the delegates and was speaking for those from the United States as well as the Spanish-Americans. In this capacity he paid a warm tribute to Spain, speaking in part as follows:

"The royal and at the same time kind and sincere welcome extended by Mexico to the nations of the continent discovered by Columbus, represented here by ourselves, is an eloquent proof that the isolation in which we have lived hitherto has not effaced the feeling of affection proper to the children of a common mother—Spain—who gave to us her language, her religion, her blood and her traditions, and who now, tired with her past glories, will feel that we her descendants, are not ungrateful and that on the occasion of our first meeting in this hospitable land side by side with the representatives of the great northern republic and those of Brazil and Hayti, we send her an enthusiastic greeting, as well as to Portugal, the colonizer of Brazil and discoverer of the Indies and southern shore of Africa. In this greeting I am sure we shall we willingly joined by the delegates of the great northern republic, where everything that is great and noble receives generous welcome, and because the programme of that republic is progress, civilization and justice."

The Marquis de Prat, Spain's minister, [arose] and thanked Gen. Rayes. It has been currently reported that the mission of the Marquis was to reach the Pan-American conference.

The utterances of Rayes have the support of the clerical and pro-Spanish press, which evidently desires to inject a great deal of Spanish-American spirit into the congress.

Several of the Central and South American delegates to the Pan-American Congress have made arrangements with the family of the late Ambassador Romeo to proceed to the cemetery where he is buried, near this city, and deposit flowers on his grave as a tribute to their esteem for the late ambassador of Mexico to Washington.

This afternoon, by appointment, Madame Diaz, wife of the President, received the ladies of the American delegation, viz: Mrs. Davis, wife of ex-Senator Davis, and her daughter; Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Hill, mother-in-law of Volney W. Foster; Miss Eva Foster, Mrs. C. M. Pepper, Mrs. Williams, wife of the secretary of the delegation; Mrs. Fox, wife of the acting director of the bureau of American republics, and Miss Fox.

POWERS AGAIN CONVICTED.

Sentenced to Imprisonment for Life—Motion for a New Trial Over-ruled and Case Appealed.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

GEORGETOWN, KY., Oct. 26.—Ex-Secretary of State Caleb Powers was to-day again convicted of being an accessory to the murder of Gov. William Goebel, in January, 1901, and for the second time has been sentenced to imprisonment for life.

The second trial began October 8th and has continued with three sessions daily, court adjourning late at night. The present term expired to night. Arguments were limited so that the case went to the jury at 3 o'clock this afternoon and a verdict of guilty soon followed.

Powers sat pale and motionless when the verdict was announced by the foreman, B. S. Calvert, his old school mate. Opposite Powers, on the other side of the court room with the attorneys, sat Arthur Goebel, brother of the late Governor, with his eyes fixed on the prisoner. The attorneys of Powers shook his hand, expressing aloud their belief in his innocence. Women crowded around Powers, embracing and kissing him, and tears were shed. The defence having filed a motion for a new trial Judge Cantrill, at 4:30 P. M. heard arfivments on the same.

Then the motion for a new trial was overruled and the case was appealed. The sentence was read and judgment suspended pending the decision of the higher tribunal. Powers was taken to Frankfort on an evening train and committed to jail without bail.

EARL RUSSELL.

Treasury Department Decides That He is Free to Enter This Country.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, October 26.—Earl Russell who was convicted by the House of Lords of bigamy for marrying a second wife in this country after he had been granted a divorce in Nevada, is free to enter this country if he so desires. Assistant Secretary Taylor, of the Treasury, which has general jurisdiction over navigation matters, decided the question to-day, overruling the commissioner of navigation, Mr. Powderly.

Mr. Taylor pointed out that Earl Russell has been granted a divorce by an American court under which grant he was at liberty to marry again, and in so marrying he was guilty of no crime against the laws of the United States or the States.

YELLOW FEVER.

The Disease Said to be Epidemic Throughout Yucatan.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Advices received by the Marine Hospital Service, through the State Board of Health of Alabama, are that yellow fever is now epidemic throughout Yucatan. The disease prevailed among the Yucatan Indians, from whom it has been contracted by the Mexican troops sent to fight them.

SAFE ROBBERY IN OHIO TOWN.

NO CLUE TO THE THIEVES.

Robbery Took Place in the Heart of the Town—Force of Explosion Was Terrific—Six Men Believed to Have Been Engaged in Affair.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BEREA, OHIO, Oct. 26.—One of the boldest safe robberies ever perpetrated in this vicinity occurred at an early hour this morning, in almost the heart of the village. The hardware store of Lawrence & Brightman was entered, the large safe was wrecked and the robbers made good their escape, carrying with them booty aggregating in amount more than $100,000.

Baldwin University bears the heaviest loss. C. C. Brightman, the junior member of the firm, is also the treasurer and a trustee of Baldwin University, and all of the available papers of the institution which were left in Brightman's custody were kept in the safe. Bonds, deeds, notes and mortgages of the University, aggregating $100,000 in value, were secured by the robbers. Many of the notes held by Baldwin University were of long stand ing and bore numerous endorsements, making it impossible to produce them in duplicate. A diligent search for the thieves has been instituted, but as yet no clew as to their whereabouts or identity has been established.

A fact regarded as most singular is that the explosion of the safe was heard by parties residing a half mile north and more than that distance southwest of the centre of the town, while those residing in the business district were unaware that an explosion had occurred.

The force of the explosion was most terrific. The safe was constructed on fire and burglar proof principles, yet the heavy doors were twisted from their hinges as if made of paper, and large pieces of the safe doors were imbedded in the walls of the building, one section weighing fifty pounds being blown clear through a board partition into an adjoining room. Six men are believed to have been engaged in the affair.

FALL RIVER COTTON MILLS.

Meeting of the Textile Union — Strike Question to be Decided by Unions at a Meeting Wednesday Night.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

FALL RIVER, MASS., Oct. 26.—A meeting of the Textile Council—at which all the unions in the city were represented—was held to night, the letter of the manufacturers refusing an advance in wages being discussed at length. The council decided that it would leave the matter of a strike entirely in the hands of the unions, which action is in line with their previous determination.

It was decided to hold general meetings of all the unions next Wednesday night, at which the letter of the manufacturers will be read and action taken. It is claimed there is but little doubt that this action will be a vote to strike. Then the strike will begin on the following Monday morning.

There is a strong sentiment here against a strike, owing to the effect it will have on all classes of business, and many at present believe that it will not materialize. The manufacturers do not take this view, however, and believe the operatives will strike. The labor leaders to night said that they had no idea other than that the unions would vote to strike. It is possible that the Spinners' Union may vote not to strike in view of the similar action taken by them before to postpone the strike. This, however, will have no bearing upon the action of the other unions, as it has been decided that in case four of the five unions vote to strike the vote shall become operative.

PANAMA ADVICES.

The Government Troops at Tumaco Surrounded by Liberal Forces.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, October 26.—Consul General Gudger, at Panama, in a dispatch to the State Department, dated October 14th, says that a report has reached him that at Tumaco, the Liberals have captured the morro which commands the entrance to the city and have surrounded the government troops stationed in the city. An effort has been made to relieve the troops, but to no purpose; and it is expected that the city will soon be taken.

MISS STONE AND COMPANION.

Were Alive and Well Five Days Ago—Negotiations Progressing Satisfactorily.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 26.—Miss Stone and her companion were alive and well five days ago. Consequently the reported death of Mme. Tsilka is untrue. This news comes through a sure channel, which is kept secret because it is the one through which the negotiations with the brigands are conducted. The negotiations are proceeding satisfactorily and developments are expected hourly.

Secretary Long announces that Admiral A. S. Crowninshield, chief of the navigation bureau at present, will be detached from that position and take command of the European squadron next March, being relieved of his present duties by Admiral Henry C. Taylor.

Negro Wounded a Co-laborer.

Galloway Filmore and Ellison James were arraigned in Justice Fowler's court yesterday afternoon and the first named was sent to jail in default of $50 bond for appearance at the Superior Court to answer the charge of assault with deadly weapon upon the latter. A similar charge against James was not sustained. The negroes are employed at Navassa and yesterday morning they engaged in an altercation which resulted in a severe wound for James. He was struck on the upper lip immediately under the nose by a heavy piece of iron ore hurled by Filmore. The wounded negro in addition to the laceration had several teeth loosened. Both were brought down to the city on a tug boat from Meares' Bluff yesterday morning.

Good Roads Convention.

Col. Waddell at the request of the mayor of Winston has appointed to attend the Good Roads Convention in that city on Friday and Saturday of this week, Alderman Louis H. Skinner, of the city streets and wharves committee; Chairman D. McDachern, of the Board of County Commissioners and Superintendent of Streets J. M. Woolard. He has been extended the courtesy of appointing two other delegates, but has not named them yet. Col. Waddell says that he would like to attend the meeting himself, but the Streets and Wharves Committee of which he is chairman will be creditably represented in Alderman Skinner.

A Change of Office.

Dr. C. T. Harper, city superintendent of health, yesterday removed his office from the old court house building to the handsome new apartments fitted up for the health department at the city hall. The adjoining office for Chief of Police Furlong has not yet been fully completed, but will be ready in a day or two for occupancy.

CAPTURE OF THE HORSE THIEF.

Description of Fugitive and Forethought of Commercial Traveller Effected Arrest.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

FAIR BLUFF, N. C., October 26.—A description published by the STAR led to the capture of the Fayetteville horse thief at Conway, S. C., a few few days ago. A gentleman by the name of Laidland had bought the horse and buggy from the thief for $90 and started into the bank to pay him when Mr. J. E. Johnson, who travels for McNair & Pearsall, of your city stopped him and taking him into the hotel showed him the description which exactly fitted the man. Mr. Laidland turned the STAR over to the chief of police of Conway who arrested him. The horse was stolen from Mr. J. A. Lambeth, of Fayetteville, and the capture of the thief is due to Mr. Johnson, who proved himself wide-a wake, and to the STAR, which kindly turned on the light. Publication in a newspaper of legitimate police news is very often the first step toward a capture of the criminal.

L. J. Guymas, of Mexia, Texas, and W. J. Hune, of New Orleans, who in 1896 made a contract with a Liverpool firm to ship them cotton, were convicted in the Federal Court of Waco, Texas, yesterday. The cotton was shipped with drafts attached to bills of lading which were cashed. When the cotton was examined it was found to be linters. The Liverpool people are said to have lost $50,000.

Ask Your Physician

When a good physician prescribes beer for a patient it is Schlitz beer. A physician knows the value of purity.

Ask him how germs affect beer and he will tell you that few stomachs can digest them. He will say at once that impure beer is unhealthful.

You will know then why we brew

Schlitz

under such rigid precautions — why we even filter the air that touches it; why we filter the beer, then sterilize every bottle.

If you knew what we know and what your physician knows about beer, you, too, would insist on Schlitz.
